

Most patients do not require inpatient surgery for their pneumothorax; follow British Society Guidance.
Throughout the pathway, aim to convert to the outpatient pathways when possible, converting to outpatient drain management, or removing drains and transferring to the elective pathway

